

Job Description

Physical Education & Health Teacher Faculty

Job Title: Middle and/or Upper School Physical Education and Health Teacher

Start Date: August 14, 2020

Salary: Based on experience

Reports directly to: Directors of Middle and Upper School

Position Description:

Antilles School is seeking dynamic and talented teachers to join a committed team of educators in a collaborative environment that places a high value on flexible thinking and problem solving. Ideal candidates are passionate and self-motivated professionals, prepared to teach a range of college prep courses that support a wide range of learning styles and abilities. Responsibilities include participating in various aspects of student life outside of teaching responsibilities. An understanding of, and a commitment to a culturally and ethnically diverse population is essential.

Qualifications Include:

- Bachelor's degree, required
- Experience in teaching both Physical Education and Health classes in independent schools, preferred
- Willingness and ability to build on existing middle school health curriculum and program
- Ability to foster positive relationships based on mutual respect and trust
- Demonstrated command of knowledge applicable to the position
- Demonstrated commitment to issues of diversity, leadership, inclusion, and equity
- Ability to collaborate and contribute to a dynamic community of teachers
- Experience in innovative course design, planning, implementation and assessment
- Ability to teach academic skills and foster intellectual habits
- Ability to communicate and interact effectively with multiple constituencies
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Detail-oriented team player with a positive outlook
- Self-directed professional committed to growth
- Experience in navigating a variety of online and technical platforms
- At least 3-5 years of experience in development and/or advancement, preferably in an independent school.
- A bachelor's degree required; a master's degree is desirable.
- A strong understanding of donor recognition and stewardship.
- Ability to maintain clear, accurate records, and prepare accurate timely records and reports.
- Understanding of development software and strong computer literacy.

School Description:

Antilles School is an independent coeducational day school located on St. Thomas, in the US Virgin Islands. Antilles enrolls approximately 425 students in a toddler program through grade 12.

Excellence, Diversity and Community are the guiding principles for each day at Antilles. We pride ourselves on inspiring each student to reach his/her potential in a multicultural setting that is one of the hallmarks of our School. Antilles combines educational excellence and character development to transform our students into young adults prepared for college, career, and life. Antilles strives to develop the whole child through challenging academic courses, technology, music, art, and athletics.

Antilles School is committed to maintaining an atmosphere of collaborative learning, to building a diverse community based on mutual respect, and to fostering social and emotional learning as well as social equity, diversity, and inclusivity into our school life.

Antilles School is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Antilles does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, non-disqualifying physical or mental disability, national origin, veteran status or any other basis covered by appropriate law. Employment decisions are decided on the basis of qualifications, merit, and demonstrated need.